

Neatishead Baptist Church: List of Inscriptions

See separate lists for Alphabetical list of Names & Dates and Names & Locations

|  |   |
|--|---|
| Four children of John & Sarah Chambers | These lovely buds so fresh and fair,Cut off by earthly doomJust came to show how soon such flowersIn paradise may bloom                             |
| George Blackburn                       | The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away. Job 1   |
| Herbert Blackburn                      | He shall gather the lambs with his arm  |
| Frederick William Bond                 | Sleep on dear son and take your rest,For God hath called whom He thought best,The loss is great that we sustain,But in heaven we hope to meet again |
| Jessie Chambers                        | Until the day break and the shadows flee away   |
| John Cole                              | Not gone from memory nor from love, but to our Father's home above  |
| Harriet Cooke                          | The departure of both were praying for their blessed redeemer's kingdom   |
| James Crimmer                          | In the midst of life we are in death  |
| George Gales                           | The fewer years, the fewer sins, The Lord's will must be done   |
| Frances Waters Harmer                  | All is of grace and not of works  |
| James Howard Harmer                    | God is Love   |
| Patience Jones                         | There are no open graves in that sweet home above,No parting's fraught with pain from those we love   |
| William Jones                          | And there shall be no more death neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain for the former things are passed away                          |
| William Lubbock                        | Until the day break and the shadows flee away   |
| Charlotte Mason                        | Just as I am Without one plea, But that Thy Blood Was shed for me   |
| George Mason                           | Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep from which none ever wakes to sweep  |
| Susan Mason                            | The blest remembrance of the just shall flourish when they sleep in dust  |
| Ann Ellen Morter                       | Not my way but Thine O Lord   |
| Henry Robert Morter                    | Sleep on dear husband and take your rest,For God takes those whom He loves best,Your youthful days were sweet to me,Too soon was I deprived of thee |
| Ruth Morter                            | Rock of ages cleft for me....   |
| Emily Mount                            | Saved by grace  |
| Jessy Platten                          | Death has been here and borne away our loved one from our side, just in the morning of her day....  |
| Robert Platten                         | Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, for they shall be comforted   |
| Stephen Platten                        | Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord  |
| William Sharpe                         | Jesus said I am the Resurrection and the Life   |
| Bertha Anne Sharpe                     | We cannot Lord the purpose see, But all is well that's done by Thee   |
| Edith Slater                           | Speak of the realms of the blestNext country so bright and so fair,And oft are its glories confessed,What must it be to be there.                   |

|  |  |
|--|--|
| Edward Slater  | I shall be satisfied when I awake with Thy likeness  |
| Frank Slater   | Had he asked us, well we knoe we should cry O spare this blow.yes with streaming tears should pray, Lord we love him, let himstay. But the Lord doth nought amiss, and since He hath orderedthis, we have nought to do but still rest in silence in His will |
|  |  |
| Occurs twice: JohnScarland AND SarahAnn Slater | Life's race well runLife's work well doneLife's crown well wonNow comes rest   |
| Sarah Spanton  | Safe in the arms of Jesus  |
| Ann Slaughter  | We'll dwell for aye, life's journey o'er, in realms of light, on heaven'sbright shore  |
| Horace Robert Sutton                                   | Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivereth himout of them all  |
| Sarah Alice Sutton                                     | Awaiting the Resurrection  |
| Maria Thirtle  | Mark 7:37 It is it must be wellGod's ways are always right,For perfect love is ruling allThough far above our sight  |
| Mary Thompson  | This much and this is all we know, she is ... blest  |

With thanks to DM, who compiled this list Summer 2009.